Keynote Speaker — Mary Jorgenson

Mary is the Moderator in Nomination for Churchwide Presbyterian Women! We are honored to have her speak of her experience last fall in the Global Exchange to India. You can prepare for her talk by reading the January/February 2012 issue of Horizons. You will hear Mary speak of human trafficking and the cultural, environmental and religious issues women in India face.

Mary has selflessly served all levels of the Presbyterian Church and been a tireless volunteer in the community. You can also ask her for an extension cord at Southminster and be assured she'll find one (that even works!) as Southminster is her home congregation.

Workshops:

Global Exchange to India: The PW Global Exchange—the causes, effects and scope of trafficking in India and in the United States. This workshop will delve more deeply into these topics and offer suggestions of ways for us to help. Led by Mary Jorgenson, our keynote speaker.

Mission Update on Pakistan & Guatemala: Mission update on the progress of recently featured PW mission projects, including Barbara Loots' recent visit to the Presbyterian Education Board in Pakistan, and developments in the Maya Quiche Presbytery in Guatemala.

Rivers and Oceans and Lakes, Oh My! Water imagery abounds in both old and new hymns. We will sing some old favorites and discover some new hymns as we explore themes of creation, baptism, and renewal. Hear what Marian Thomas has to say about the new Presbyterian Hymnal, Glory to God, being assembled for a 2013 debut.
